Holger Borbe and Gerald Appel have been showing tireless commitment and team spirit in the daily project work and support for our customers for 5 years now.

The most valuable asset and the most important guarantee of success of a company are its employees!

Dear Holger, Dear Gerald,

for 5 years now you are an important and indispensable part of our company. As reliable and loyal employees you are the guarantor for the successful realization of numerous projects and support tasks, be it in consulting or development. We have experienced many exciting things and times together over the past years, and have fought our way through the jungle of challenges together. You have shown that we can rely on you at any time, which is also characterized by the often heard customer satisfaction and your thinking along with us. Therefore we say:

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

for your work, your untiring commitment and team spirit. We are very happy to have such trusting colleagues in our midst and look forward to many more years with you in the ASCONSIT family!
