

New branch office

More space for innovative IAM projects

by ASCONSIT | Published on 18. May 2022

In Hamburg directly on site.

ASCONSIT continues to grow and opens a new office in Hamburg. This brings us even closer to our customers in the Hamburg metropolitan region. The convenient location of our new premises in the Hafencity provides optimal accessibility for employees, visitors and customers. The view from the 14th floor over the harbour and the rooftops of the city opens up unique perspectives for new consulting services and solution approaches, which always put our customers at the centre.

For our employees from the greater Hamburg area, the new office offers onsite workplaces with excellent transport connections. The location and equipment of the offices meet our high-quality standards for a modern and contemporary workplace. We offer our customers unique meeting rooms that support creative processes and the conception of innovative, future-oriented IAM solutions.

Let us inspire you with our ideas and solutions and visit us in Hamburg. We look forward to new challenges, intensive technical discussions and constructive solutions. We look forward to new joint projects with you and to "IT security with vision"!