

The preparations for UNITE 2023

by ASCONSIT | Published on 17. August 2023

ASCONSIT is a participant and sponsor of the UNITE Global User and Partner Conference, taking place in Madrid from September 18th to 22nd, 2023.

As sponsor of this prestigious conference, we will be presenting our latest solutions in identity security and expanding our network with industry experts.

What is UNITE?

UNITE is the event where experts from the world of identity come together. Innovative ways to reduce risk, save time, and lower costs through the use of advanced technologies and proven practices are discussed here.

For details on all the specifics, presentation times, and speakers, please visit the official website of the UNITE Global User and Partner Conference.
